

A. ONE-PAGE PRINTABLE DAILY CHECKLIST

RAMADAN DAILY CHECKLIST

Intention (Morning)

- ☐ I intended to fast for the sake of Allah
- ☐ I reminded myself to keep the day light and calm

Prayer

- ☐ Fajr
 - ☐ Dhuhr
 - ☐ Asr
 - ☐ Maghrib
 - ☐ Isha
- (If any were missed, I will return calmly and continue)*

Fasting Conduct

- ☐ Avoided unnecessary arguments
- ☐ Watched my speech
- ☐ Practiced patience when tired or irritated

Remembrance

- ☐ Short remembrance (spoken or silent)
- ☐ Brief moment of gratitude

Qur'an

- ☐ Read or listened to Qur'an (any amount)

Iftar

- ☐ Broke fast calmly
- ☐ Thanked Allah for the ability to fast

Night

- ☐ Short prayer or reflection
- ☐ Made du'ā' (any language)

End-of-Day Reflection

- One good thing today: _____
- One thing to improve tomorrow: _____

Reminder: Progress matters more than perfection.

B. WEEKLY RAMADAN RHYTHM FOR BEGINNERS

Week 1: Adjustment and Awareness

Focus: Body adjustment and basic structure

- Learn fasting rhythm
- Focus on intention and avoiding negativity
- Keep prayers simple and honest
- Light Qur'an exposure (even listening)

Key mindset: "I am learning. I am allowed to adjust."

Week 2: Stability and Consistency

Focus: Routine and emotional balance

- Try to be more consistent with prayers
- Add short daily Qur'an reading or listening
- Work on controlling speech and reactions
- Begin short daily reflection

Key mindset: "Consistency is more important than intensity."

Week 3: Depth and Reflection

Focus: Meaning and connection

- Improve prayer focus, not length
- Reflect on Qur'an meaning
- Increase du'a, especially personal du'a
- Practice forgiveness and patience actively

Key mindset: "I am building awareness, not chasing numbers."

Week 4: Completion and Renewal

Focus: Intention and sincerity

- Prepare for last ten days calmly
- Increase night reflection within capacity
- Focus on gratitude and forgiveness
- Plan what to carry after Ramadan

Key mindset: "Ramadan is shaping me, not exhausting me."

C. POST-RAMADAN CONTINUATION MODEL

1. What Continues (Minimum Sustainable Model)

After Ramadan, do not try to maintain Ramadan-level intensity. Maintain structure instead.

Daily

- One or more prayers consistently
- One short du‘ā’
- One moment of remembrance

Weekly

- One Qur’an session (reading or listening)
- One intentional good deed
- One reflection moment

This is success.

2. What Naturally Reduces (And That Is OK)

- Night prayers may reduce
- Qur’an quantity may decrease
- Energy levels may normalize

Reduction is not failure. Abandonment is the only loss.

3. Community and Support

- Stay connected, even lightly
- One mosque visit a week or month
- One trusted Muslim contact

Isolation after Ramadan is common. Gentle connection prevents discouragement.

4. Mindset for Reverts After Ramadan

- Islam is not seasonal
- Faith grows unevenly
- Returning matters more than staying perfect

If you fall behind:

- Pause
- Return
- Continue

This cycle is normal and accepted.

D. Short Du‘ā’ Collection (Transliteration + Meaning)

Du‘ā’ can be made in any language. These short supplications are provided to help beginners feel comfortable and confident. Memorization is not required.

1. Du‘ā’ for Intention and Sincerity

Allahumma taqabbal minnī.

O Allah, accept it from me.

2. Du‘ā’ for Forgiveness

Rabbighfir lī wa tub ‘alayya.

My Lord, forgive me and accept my repentance.

3. Du‘ā’ for Strength

Allahumma a‘innī ‘alā dhikrika wa shukrika.

O Allah, help me to remember You and to be grateful to You.

4. Du‘ā’ at Iftar

Allahumma innī laka sumtu wa ‘alayka tawakkalt.

O Allah, I fasted for You and I rely upon You.

5. Du‘ā’ for Ease

Rabbi yassir wa lā tu‘assir.

My Lord, make things easy and do not make them difficult.

These may be read, listened to, or paraphrased in one’s own words.

E. Non-Arabic Prayer Cheat Sheet

Prayer may feel overwhelming for new Muslims. This cheat sheet focuses on meaning first, helping establish connection before memorization.

Basic Prayer Structure (Very Simplified)

1. Standing
 - Intention in the heart
 - “Allahu Akbar” (God is greater)
2. Recitation
 - Any short chapter, verse, or remembered phrase
 - If still learning, silent remembrance is acceptable
3. Bowing
 - Bow and say: Subhāna Rabbiyal ‘Azīm
Glory be to my Lord, the Most Great
4. Prostration
 - Say: Subhāna Rabbiyal A‘lā
Glory be to my Lord, the Most High
5. Ending
 - Sit calmly
 - Make du‘ā’ in any language

Important note for reverts:

Prayer improves gradually. Understanding and sincerity matter more than perfect pronunciation.

F. One-Page Ramadan Planner

This planner is designed to help visualize the month without creating stress. It focuses on intention rather than volume.

My Ramadan Focus

This Ramadan, I want to work on:

- One prayer habit: _____
- One character habit: _____
- One Qur’an habit: _____

Weekly Reflection (Brief)

Week 1: What went well? _____

Week 2: What was difficult? _____

Week 3: What improved? _____

Week 4: What will I continue? _____

Post-Ramadan Carry-Forward

- One habit I will keep daily: _____
- One habit I will keep weekly: _____

Reminder: Carrying even one habit forward means Ramadan succeeded.
